INFORMATION FOR FIRST-TIME CANDIDATES FOR THE UNIFORM CPA EXAMINATION

The Tennessee State Board of Accountancy (Board) has engaged CPA Examination Services (CPAES), a division of the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy, Inc. (NASBA) for application processing, credential evaluation, and score reporting. Please read this information carefully before completing the application forms.

APPLICATION FORMS

First-time applications must be completed by candidates who:

- ❖ have never taken the Uniform CPA Examination as a candidate of this jurisdiction.
- ❖ have previously applied, but were found ineligible or incomplete to take the examination as an applicant of this jurisdiction.
- ❖ have previously taken the examination as an applicant of another jurisdiction but who have not earned credit.
- ❖ have previously taken the examination as an applicant of another state and wish to transfer credit to this jurisdiction.

ELIGIBILITY FOR EXAMINATION

All first-time applicants must have completed (or be currently enrolled towards completion of):

- ❖ At least 150 semester hours of college education, including a baccalaureate or higher degree conferred by a regionally accredited college or university recognized by the Board which includes;
 - at least 24 semester (or 36 quarter) hours in accounting, AND
 - at least 24 semester (or 36 quarter) hours in general business subjects such as;
 - business law,
 - algebra, calculus, statistics, probability
 - economics,
 - finance,
 - management,
 - marketing,
 - technology(computer)/information systems,
 - ethics,
 - business communications.

All educational transcripts, Certificate of Enrollments, and/or foreign evaluations are required to be submitted to CPA Examination Services. Official school transcripts, Certificate of Enrollments and/or foreign evaluations may be submitted by applicants separately or included with First-time Application.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- ❖ Education earned at a regionally accredited community college or two-year degree granting institutions are acceptable.
- ❖ Courses taken at either a two year or a non-accredited four year institution are acceptable provided they are transferable to the four year degree granting institution from which you received your degree, by being added to that transcript or by correspondence from that institution stating those credits will transfer.

- ❖ Hours taken above the hours required to meet the baccalaureate degree requirement should be taken in courses at the upper division or graduate level in subject areas that would enhance the professional competency, knowledge and skills of a candidate seeking to become a CPA. For purposes of this rule, candidates must have at least 12 semester or 18 quarter hours of accounting education and at least 12 semester or 18 quarter hours of general business courses at the upper division level, junior level courses or higher.
- ❖ Correspondence, CLEP credit, pass/fail grades and online courses are acceptable when an applicant receives credit for the courses at a regionally accredited college or university. These courses must appear on an official transcript.
- ❖ Courses in progress listed on an official school transcript are acceptable in place of the Certificate of Enrollment.
- ❖ Not more than 3 semester (4 quarter) hours may be internship.

TRANSCRIPTS

I. Applicants who have completed all educational requirements at the time of application must:

- ❖ submit to CPA Examination Services relevant official transcript(s) from each institution at which original credit toward the educational requirement has been earned.
- ❖ The official transcript(s) may be submitted by applicant.
- ❖ Photocopies of transcripts are not acceptable.
- ❖ Transcripts “Issued to Student” are acceptable if received in a sealed envelope.
- ❖ If required documentation is not received, the application will be determined to be incomplete and the candidate will not be permitted to take the examination and will forfeit the application fee paid.

II. Applicants who are currently enrolled in college at the time of application must:

- ❖ submit to CPA Examination Services relevant official transcript(s) from each institution at which original credit toward the educational requirement has been earned.
- ❖ submit to CPA Examination Services a completed Certificate of Enrollment form. This form is evidence that the applicant is currently enrolled and that all courses and graduation requirements will be completed within two hundred (200) days immediately following the actual date which the candidate took his/her first test section. The form must be signed by an authorized official of the college and signed by the applicant.
- ❖ The official transcript(s) and Certificate of Enrollment Form may be submitted by the applicant.
- ❖ If required documentation is not received, the application will be determined to be incomplete and the candidate will not be permitted to take the examination and will forfeit the application fee paid.

After all educational requirements have been met, the applicant must:

- ❖ have the academic institution(s) submit to CPA Examination Services an official transcript to confirm degree conferral and satisfactory completion of courses within 200 days following the actual date the candidate took his/her first test section.
- ❖ The final official transcript must display satisfactory completion of all courses and the degree graduation date.
- ❖ The official transcript may be submitted by the applicant.

These applicants are advised:

- ❖ Examination scores will not be released nor will the applicant be permitted to take future examinations until CPA Examination Services receives the final official transcript.

- ❖ Failure to successfully complete the courses and/or degree requirements as indicated on the Certificate of Enrollment will result in the examination score(s) being voided.
- ❖ If the required final official transcript is not received, the application will be determined to be incomplete and the applicant will NOT receive examination score(s), will NOT receive any credit for any Uniform CPA Examination section taken, and will NOT be permitted to take any future examinations and will be required to reapply as a First-time applicant again.

III. Applicants who have completed educational requirements at institutions outside the U.S. must

- ❖ have their educational credentials evaluated by ONE of the following;
 - Foreign Academic Credentials Service, Inc.,
 - International Educational Research Foundation (IERF),
 - Josef Silny & Associates, Inc., International Education Consultants,
 - World Education Services, Inc.,
 - International Consultants of Delaware, Inc. (ICD),
 - International Evaluation Services of the Center for Applied Research, Evaluation and Education, Inc. (IESCAREE),
 - Academic Credentials Evaluation Institute (ACEI),
- ❖ obtain the form to request this service from the evaluation service agency.
- ❖ submit their foreign transcript(s) from each institution at which original credit toward the educational requirement has been earned to the evaluation service agency.
- ❖ The evaluation of the foreign transcript(s) must be a course by course comparison to Tennessee requirements.
- ❖ Completed original evaluations must be submitted to CPA Examination Services. The original evaluation may be submitted by applicant. Photocopies are not acceptable.
- ❖ If required documentation is not received, the application will be determined to be incomplete and the applicant will not be permitted to take the examination and will forfeit the application fee paid.

APPLICANTS WITH DISABILITIES

In accordance with the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act, examination administration accommodations are available for applicants who qualify. Such applicants must obtain a form to request special accommodations from CPA Examination Services. The completed form must be returned to CPA Examination Services with all required documentation. This form may be obtained on our website at www.nasba.org.

TRANSFER OF EXAMINATION CREDIT

Applicants, transferring credit(s) from another jurisdiction into Tennessee, must have earned credit under the same rules as are in effect in Tennessee.

An applicant who has passed one or more sections of the CPA examination under another jurisdiction shall be given conditional credit by this board provided the applicant has established residence in Tennessee and is still eligible to be considered a reexamination candidate in the original state where credit was earned.

An Authorization for Interstate Exchange of Examination Information Form is required to be submitted. The Form must be completed and submitted to CPA Examination Services directly from the Accountancy Board where original credit was earned. This form may be obtained online at www.nasba.org.

Forms of Payment

Online application/registration

The only form of payment is via credit card (MasterCard, VISA or Discover only). To apply for the CPA Examination online, please visit cpacentral.nasba.org. You will be asked to create a user account. Registering for a user account will allow you to apply for the exam, maintain your current information, view your scores, check your application status and reprint your Notice(s) To Schedule.

Paper Application

The acceptable forms of payments are: Certified check, money order or company check. Certified checks, money orders or company checks must be drawn through a U.S. bank and made payable to CPA Examination Services. All fees must be paid at the time of application and must be in U.S. dollars.

A fee of $35.00 will be charged for a report of insufficient funds by the bank.

WITHDRAWAL/REFUND/EXTENSIONS

There is no provision for withdrawing from the examination, refunding fees or extending the expiration date of the Notice to Schedule.

Applicants with documented hardships may request an exception to policy under the following criteria:

- VISA rejections;
- Military Deployment;
- Medical emergency;
- Death in immediate family.

Applicants must submit an Exception to Policy form (located at www.nasba.org) with supporting documentation for consideration. The request must be received no later than 30 days from the date of the documented hardship.

NOTICE TO SCHEDULE (NTS)

Applicants are advised to see the Candidate Bulletin at www.nasba.org for complete instructions. After eligibility to take the examination is determined, NASBA will issue an NTS to applicants. The NTS is sent via the method of notification selected by the applicant.

The NTS is valid for one testing event or six months, whichever is first exhausted for each examination section. The email is sent from cbtnnts@nasba.org. If the NTS is not received within four weeks of submitting a First-time Application, contact CPA Examination Services via email at cpaexam@nasba.org.

If your NTS expires prior to taking the examination section(s), applicants will not be able to reschedule, receive a credit or receive a refund on any of the fees paid and will have to reapply for the examination and pay the appropriate fees.

The NTS must be presented for entry at the testing center. Applicants arriving without an NTS will be denied permission to test. Applicants will forfeit fees and be required to reapply and pay applicable fees.

The NTS can be reprinted at www.nasba.org.

SCHEDULING THE EXAMINATION

Upon receipt of the NTS, applicants are required to contact Prometric at www.prometric.com/CPA/default.htm to schedule the examination. The scheduling, rescheduling or cancellation of testing appointments is done through Prometric. See the Candidate Bulletin located at www.nasba.org for complete instruction on how to schedule, reschedule or cancel an appointment. Applicants may be required to pay a penalty and/or forfeit examination fees, depending on when Prometric is notified of the change or cancellation.

A list of test centers is available at www.prometric.com. CPAES does not control space availability or location of the test centers.

Applicants arriving for a testing appointment anytime after the scheduled appointment time may result in being denied permission to test. Applicants will forfeit fees and be required to reapply and pay applicable fees.

EXAMINATION CREDIT

Applicants may take the examination sections individually and in any order. Applicants shall be deemed to have passed the examination if the candidate obtains credit for passing each of the four examination sections. The passing score for each section is 75. Credit for passing an examination section shall be valid from the date of the examination regardless of the date on which the candidate receives actual notice of the passing score.

Credit for any section passed shall be valid for 18 months from the date the candidate took that section regardless of the number of sections taken or the scores on any failed sections. Applicants shall pass all four examination sections within a rolling 18 month period that begins on the testing date the first examination section is passed. Applicants who do not pass all four examination sections within the 18 month period shall lose credit for each section passed outside the period and must retake those sections.

Applicants cannot retake failed sections within the same testing window.

NAME, ADDRESS or SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER CHANGE

Candidate information changes such as name, address or social security number must be submitted in writing to CPA Examination Services. Candidates must submit the Address/Name Change Form located at www.nasba.org with supporting documentation.

Scores

Score Notices are mailed to the address on file. Candidates are advised to submit Address/Name Change Form at least two weeks prior to the release of scores.
